The Convenience of

"Open Stock" Dinnerware.

How often does the absent housewife find upon her return that her china service is much impaired through breakage, leaving an incomplete set, the missing pieces of which cannot be supplied? That is just the difference between the "Open Stock" Dinnerware and the "100-pc. Set," so frequently advertised at ridiculous prices.

In the usual "100-pc. Set" you take the assortment just as the factory makes it, without regard to your needs or wishes. In the "Open Stock" Set you make your own assortment; more of this piece, less of that, and none of another. When in use a piece is broken or you wish to augment the service, the pattern being carried in stock by us permits the supplying of such pieces promptly.

French China Open Stock Dinnerware, for service of 12 persons, $23.75.

Austrian China Open Stock Dinnerware, for service of 12 persons, $28.40; for 6 persons, $21.45.

American China Open Stock Dinnerware, for service of 12 persons, $18.50; for 6 persons, $13.25.

English Porcelain Open Stock Dinnerware, for service of 12 persons, $11.55; for 6 persons, $8.75.

American Porcelain Open Stock Dinnerware, for service of 12 persons, $6.75.

SOCIETY THROGS WARRENTON SHOW

Exhibition Fully Up to Those of Former Years.

GROUNDS IN GOOD CONDITION

Special Feature of Opening Day is Class of Green Hunters, with Thirty-six Entries—Morning Is Given Over to Judging Utility Horses—The Summaries.

Special to The Washington Herald.

Warrenton, Va., Aug. 29.—The first day of the thirteenth annual horse show opened here to-day with its usual promise. The grand stand and promenade were well filled throughout the entire day, showing clearly the popularity of the Warrenton exhibition, which has for many years claimed the greatest open-air show in America. The special feature of the day was the class of green hunters, with thirty-six entries with several perfect scores. The first part of the day was given entirely to the judging of utility horses, colts, &c.

Showers fell during the day, but the grounds were in excellent condition, even at the close of the show.

GORMAN IS ROUTED BY FIRE IN HOME

Residence at Springfield, Md., Destroyed by Flames.

Fire of unknown origin destroyed the residence of Calvin P. Gorman, brother of the late Arthur P. Gorman, and uncle of State Senator Gorman, at Springfield, Md., yesterday morning.

Mrs. Gorman was awakened about 2 o'clock by the odor of smoke, and hurrying down stairs, found the rear of the house ablaze. She hastened back to awake Mr. Gorman. They barely had time to gather a few pieces of clothing. While passing through the house, Mrs. Gorman had her hair singed and her face badly blistered.

Mr. Gorman sounded an alarm, but before the neighbors could reach the scene everything was destroyed. In an effort to save several hundred chickens, Mr. Gorman entered the hen house, and feeling his way through the smoke and darkness, ran against a sharp projectile and severely lacerated his face.

He succeeded in driving the fowls to a place of safety, but was unable to save any of the farm machinery and vehicles, including a newly purchased carriage. Several hundred powerful fire cartridges in the house exploded, but no one was hurt. The loss is estimated at $5,000.

Pneumatic Tube Demonstrated.

The Postal Service Extension Company, of New York, yesterday gave two demonstrations of a pneumatic tube system recently installed between the House and of the Capitol and the House Office Building. Officials of the company claim that the car travels through the tube at the rate of 120 miles an hour.

Margaret McMullen, who had been on trial for several days in New York, for being a common scold, was acquitted in October 21, 1911.
